

ACTIVE AP DISCOVERY Contract Compliance

Optimize the financial benefits of commercial contract agreements, through an OCR based approach to accelerate the audit and recovery process.

Effective monitoring and analysis of commercial contracts is the key to extracting maximum value. However, manually tracking all activities, paperwork, and payments and comparing these to the applicable contracts (on a continuous basis) is an enormous amount of work for any sizable organization.

Our innovative solution leverages a data-driven approach that accelerates the identification and highlighting of discrepancies.

This process provides enhanced visibility of the risks and issues, which defines the roadmap for addressing the problems and recovering lost revenue.

BENEFITS

- $5M per billion of annual revenue is typically lost due to contracts not being properly adhered to, stop this from happening in your organization.
- Get the most out of your commercial contract agreements to gain all expected financial benefits.
- Establishing a culture of oversight encourages better vendor relationships.
- Identifying the root cause analysis, is a best practice approach to prevent further revenue leakage.

✓ $5M PER BILLION OF ANNUAL REVENUE CAN BE SAVED THROUGH PRO-ACTIVE CONTRACT COMPLIANCE

The Glantus solution is based on Identifying and analyzing the root cause and incorporates a best practice approach to minimize revenue leakage.

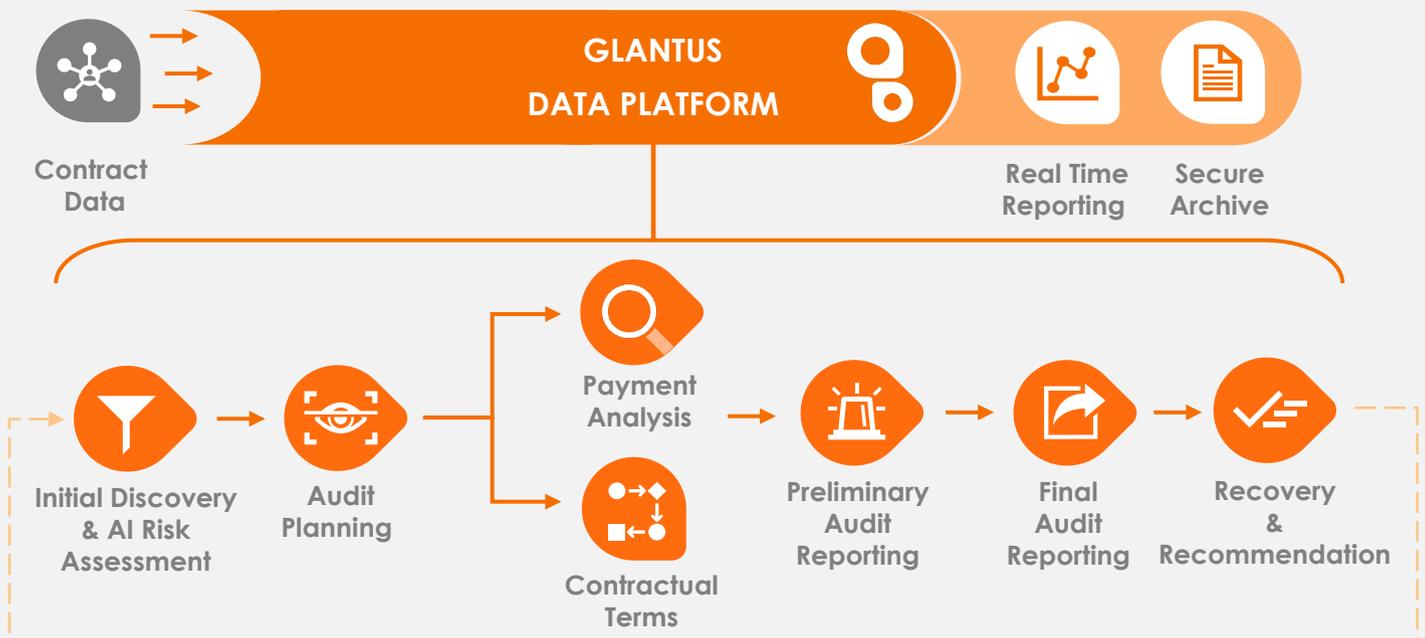

This process helps to establish a culture of oversight and encourages better vendor relationships, which also leads to fully optimized contracts in the future.

The unique approach from Glantus, is designed to handle different types of contracts and high volumes of transactions, leading to a quicker return than a more traditional approach. It is also equipped to audit historical activity which leads to the recovery of any lost financial benefits which can be added to your bottom line.

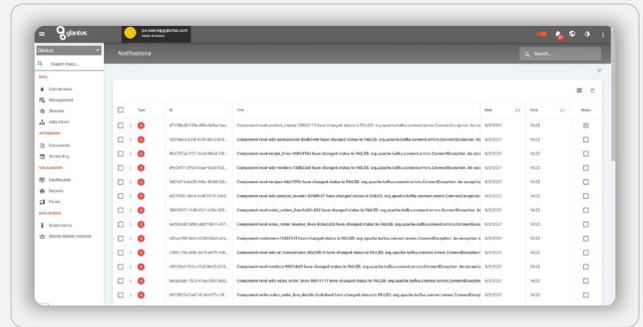

The end-to-end process requires minimal time from your business, our solution does the legwork, and you receive the gains.

Our data-driven approach pro-actively compares business transactions to contracts, to identify discrepancies, root cause and prevent further revenue leakage.
